

JESSICA HOMEN

Art is an all-encompassing part of my life, influencing everything I do. My eye is trained in photography—I look closely and study details; this transfers to my teaching as well as my studio practice. Diverging perspectives allow me to step back and look at the greater picture; always reassessing, always developing.

www.jessicahomen.com
contact@jessicahomen.com

SKILLS & QUALIFICATIONS

Certified: Grades 5-12. Passed MTEL Communication, Literacy, and Visual Arts tests. Creative, honest, responsible, outgoing, dedicated, organized and a good team leader. Proficient in Microsoft Office tools—Word, PowerPoint and Outlook. Skills in digital and film photography, painting, drawing, graphic design, web design, html/css, Adobe tools—Photoshop, Illustrator and Dreamweaver. Interests include video games, computers, poetry and animal & human rights.

EDUCATION

Massachusetts College of Art and Design

Bachelor of Fine Arts in Art Education, December 2013

TEACHING EXPERIENCE

Peabody Veterans Memorial High School Peabody, MA
Long Term Substitute

September 2014 – October 2014

- Instructed two level one black & white photography courses and one level two black & white photography course, developing skills in darkroom photography, installing work, as well as a vocabulary in art-making
- Taught two level one TV courses in which students acquired skills in recording, editing, lighting, shot methods and storyboarding

MassArt Summer Studios Boston, MA

July 2014 – August 2014

Assistant Teacher Black & White Film Photography

- Assisted in teaching a four week course in which high school students experienced college life through evolving skills in darkroom photography and exhibiting work

MassArt Saturday Studios Boston, MA

February 2014 – May 2014 & September 2012 - December 2012

Lead Teacher Black & White Film Photography

- Designed an eight week course in which high school students build a personalized portfolio by Creating Connections between art and themselves with a focus in contemporary artists

Watertown High School Watertown, MA

September 2013 - December 2013

Student Teaching Intern

- Planned and effectively instructed lessons for two level one Photography classes, a level two Photography class and co-taught Graphic Design and Web Design classes over the course of a school semester
- Evolved students skills in darkroom and digital photography, writing, critical thinking and analysis of contemporary art world while utilizing a course website for instruction

CURATORIAL

John Crowe Show: The Constant Evolving Present Boston, MA

January 2013 - April 2013

Documentation, Promotional Design and Online Presence, Arnheim Gallery

- Collaborated with a group of colleagues to design a retrospective for retiring artist and educator John Crowe
- Specialized in photo-documentation for process and finished exhibition, designing promotional materials, a catalogue and an online communication presence

VOLUNTEER ACTIVITIES

MassArt Family Day, Boston MA, Gallery Educator, Fall 2012

Roger Clap Innovation School, Dorchester MA, Assistant Art Teacher, Spring 2011

Boys & Girls Club of Boston, Blue Hill Chapter, Dorchester MA, Assistant to the Art Director, Spring 2010

Dr. Catherine Ellison-Rosa Parks Early Education School, Mattapan MA, Assistant, Fall 2010

Peabody Institute Library, Peabody MA, Paige, 2004-2005